NOTES FROM FR. JOHN

Dearly Beloved Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

This past week, on our Parish Facebook page, our editor of that social media space, our fellow parishioner, Rich Koski, shared this quote from Roman Catholic writer Marina S. Olson:

“I never knew how much time I wasted not praying or doing anything else remotely useful, until I challenged myself to sacrifice that time to God. I never realized how often I put God last, until I made the smallest effort to put Him first.”

Wow. These words strike me deeply—really deeply—because, frankly, they convict me.

The first evil, the first sinful failing, that we ask God to remove from us when we recite the Lenten Prayer of Saint Ephrem is sloth, which can also be rendered as torpor, accidie, lethargy, sluggishness, laziness, indolence, apathy or listlessness. “O Lord and Master of my life, take from me the spirit of sloth...” Sloth is the first vice from which we beg release in the Prayer of Saint Ephrem, probably because this is one of the most common and devastating of all sins. It is a sin that sneaks up on us, to which, sometimes, we don’t even realize that we have fallen prey.

We have three weeks left of fasting, of discipline, before we are given the gift of Holy Pascha. We have two more weeks of Great Lent, and then the Holy Week of Our Lord’s Passion, His Suffering. Let’s make an effort during that short, precious time to put God first, and to fight off, by the grace of God, the devastating sin of sloth.

With love in Christ,

Fr. John H.

Annual ONE Stewards Appeal

March is ONE Stewards month!

ONE (Orthodox New England) Stewards is a group within the Diocese of New England who contribute money to the Diocese for the purpose of supporting outreach (and “in-reach”) ministries in the Diocese beyond what the annual budget of the Diocese is able to support.

These ministries include charitable grants, scholarships and youth programs. One of the specific programs supported is our annual Diocesan Youth Rally, of which our own Fr. John Hopko is presently the Director.

Historically, our parish membership has a wonderful record of ONE Stewards membership. Many members of our parish have been annual supporting members of ONE Stewards for many consecutive years.

Every year at about this time ONE Stewards conducts its annual membership appeal. Please consider supporting this program. Donations may be made by writing a check made out to “ONE Stewards—Diocese of New England” and then sending it to ONE Stewards, PO BOX 1182, Torrington, CT 06790-1182. Alternatively, you may simply give your ONE Stewards donation directly to our own Deacon Paul Nimchek, who coordinates ONE Stewards on behalf of the Diocese.

News and Notes

Lenten Confessions – We are two-thirds of the way through Great Lent! Each and every Christian ought to (must!) participate in the saving Sacrament of Holy Confession during the Lenten season, as part of his or her own “Lenten journey.” Please make your Lenten confession before the end of Great Lent, that is, by Friday, March 31. By the time we reach Holy Week and Pascha, every member of the Parish should (must!) have participated in the Sacrament of Confession in the Lenten season.

CT Deanery Lenten Mission Services: During Great Lent this year we are again having Sunday afternoon/evening Lenten Mission services here in the Connecticut Deanery of the Diocese of New England. The remaining schedule of services is:

Help with Completing Tax Returns: The United Way of West Central CT, serving Bristol, Burlington, Plainville, and Plymouth, is once again offering free tax preparation through their Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program (VITA). In order to qualify, an individual’s (or family’s) household income must be less than $54,000.00. Appointments are required, and may be set up by telephoning (860) 356-2000. Also, the United Way has partnered with H&R Block to bring MyFreeTaxes to households with incomes of less than $66,000.00. Weather Related Cancellations: If we need to cancel parish services and/or other events due to bad weather, those announcements will appear on NBC Connecticut Television and on the NBC Connecticut website. We will also place a notice on our Parish website. Also, you can always call the Parish House (860-582-3631) for further information.

Pertaining to Pascha

- Volunteers Required: We need a volunteer (or volunteers) to come to the Church early in Holy Week (Monday or Tuesday) to iron all the black and white covers for use in the Church later in the week for Holy Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Holy Pascha.
- Paschal Appeals: Please give generously to our Parish’s General Paschal Appeal and to the Easter (Paschal) Flower Offering. We always have lovely flowers in the Church for Pascha and our contributions help cover the cost of these beautiful additions to our Paschal worship. Your support of these two appeals is deeply appreciated.
- Blessing of Paschal Baskets: The Blessing of Paschal Baskets will take place at the conclusion of the Paschal Midnight Services in the Church Basement Social Hall, after which time the Parish Paschal “Agape” Meal will take place in the same location.
- Paschal Agape Meal: The Parish Paschal “Agape” Meal, which will happen after the Paschal Midnight Divine Liturgy, will take place in the Church Basement Social Hall, immediately following the Blessing of the Paschal Baskets. We will not have a general food table, but will be eating from and sharing the contents of our family Paschal Baskets, while enjoying each other’s company. If you are planning to stay for this meal, please bring everything you need with you—your own plates, cups and cutlery, your own beverages and condiments, etc. (P.S. The word “agape,” pronounced “ah-GAH-pay,” means “love” in the Greek language and is the traditional word used to describe this Paschal meal.)
- Thomas Sunday Blessing of Graves: On Sunday, April 15, weather and ground conditions permitting, we will celebrate the Sunday after Pascha, Thomas Sunday. As is the parish’s custom for Thomas Sunday, we will bless the graves in the parish cemetery that day beginning at 12:15 PM.

Readings from Holy Scripture

Scripture Readings for the Fourth Sunday of Great Lent, on which we commemorate especially the memory of St. John of the Ladder

The Reading from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Hebrews (Heb. 6:13-20)

Brothers and Sisters: when God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself, saying, "Surely I will bless you and multiply you." And thus Abraham, having patiently endured, obtained the promise. Men indeed swear by a greater than themselves, and in all their disputes an oath is final for confirmation. So when God desired to show more convincingly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he interposed with an oath, so that through two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible that God should prove false, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to seize the hope set before us. We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner shrine behind the curtain, where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

The Reading from the Gospel according to St. Mark (Mk. 9:17-31)

At that time, a man came to Jesus, kneeling down and saying unto him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a dumb spirit; and wherever it seizes him, it dashes him down; and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid; and I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able." And he answered them, "O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me." And they brought the boy to him; and when the spirit saw Jesus, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. And Jesus asked his father, "How long has he had this?" And he said, "From childhood. And it has often cast him into the fire and into the water, to destroy him; but if you can do anything, have pity on us and help us." And Jesus said to him, "If you can! All things are possible to him who believes." Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, "I believe; help my unbelief!" And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You dumb and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again." And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse; so that most of them said, "He is dead." But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?" And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer and fasting." They went on from there and passed through Galilee. And he would not have any one know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of man will be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, after three days he will rise."
